North American Technical Excellence (NATE) Information

For customers and participating dealers to be eligible for the properly installed equipment incentive available in the 2011 Cool Cash Incentive program, installations of qualifying central air conditioning systems must be supervised on-site and required program forms must be completed by an individual who is certified in air conditioning installation and service by North American Technician Excellence (NATE). NATE certification is not required to qualify for equipment efficiency or proper sizing incentives available in the program. Please provide copies of certification cards of the individuals listed below. Use additional sheets as necessary.

Terms and Conditions

As a participating dealer in Rocky Mountain Power's 2011 Cool Cash Incentive program, you agree to provide customers with information consistent with the following terms and conditions. Failure to comply may result in your exclusion from participation in the program. If such exclusion occurs, incentive applications from customers purchasing equipment from said dealers will no longer be honored. Rocky Mountain Power and its agent PECEI are not liable for any commitments made by dealers to customers after the termination of this agreement, or for incentives in which participating dealers provide customers with incorrect information about the amount and/or conditions associated with receiving the actual incentive, or for incentive ineligibility for equipment that is mislabeled or misrepresented by the dealer regarding incentive qualifications.

Customer and dealer incentives are offered for a limited-time only and will be honored on a first-come, first-served basis as determined by the application postmark date or online application submittal date. All qualifying equipment must be new and must be purchased and installed prior to submitting an incentive application, and all applications must be received by the 2011 application deadline. Incentive qualifications and amounts are subject to change and termination at any time.

Program Rules and Eligibility Requirements

Program rules, as well as customer and dealer incentive eligibility requirements, are outlined in the 2011 Cool Cash Incentive Program Manual, included herein by reference.

Removal from Program Participation

Rocky Mountain Power reserves the right to end dealer participation in this program at any time. Dealer participation may be ended for any of, but not limited to, the following reasons: 1) failure to comply with this agreement's terms and conditions; 2) misrepresentation of this program to Rocky Mountain Power customers and/or other parties; 3) knowingly providing false or incorrect information regarding an incentive application; 4) termination of the Cool Cash Incentive program; or 5) utility regulatory requirements.

If dealer participation is terminated for any reason, Rocky Mountain Power and its agent PECEI will honor incentives for qualifying equipment that is purchased, installed, and has a completed incentive application submitted prior to the termination date. Incentives for equipment purchased, installed, or applications submitted after the termination date will not be honored.

Dealers may also opt to terminate their agreement to participate in the 2011 Cool Cash Incentive program by providing 30 days written notice prior to termination. Rocky Mountain Power and its agent PECEI will honor incentives for qualifying equipment that is purchased, installed, and has a completed incentive application submitted prior to the termination date. Incentives for equipment purchased, installed, or applications submitted after the termination date will not be honored.
