

Home Energy Savings program Detailed Summary of 2013 Utah Incentive Changes

Important! Rocky Mountain Power's planned changes to the incentives and equipment qualifications associated with our energy efficiency program became retroactively effective May 1, 2013.

Incentive	For work completed before May 1, 2013	For purchases on or after May 1, 2013
Evaporative cooler – first time install	Work must be completed by either a participating or qualified HVAC program trade ally.	Work must be completed by either a qualified or participating HVAC program trade ally. Self-installs are allowed but do not qualify for the dealer incentive.
Evaporative cooler – replacement
Evaporative cooler – premium
Evaporative cooler – premium whole house ducted		